Episcopal House of Bishops--Criminal Notes--The Gilmore--Produce Corners.

New York, Oct. 29.--The House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church assembled at Grace Church, in this city, yesterday. About thirty Bishops were present, among them Bishops Talbot of Indiana, Whipple of Pennsylvania, Elliott of Texas, and others.

Right Rev. Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, presided and administered the holy communion. He then delivered an address, at the conclusion of which the House went into secret session. It is understood that during the session two new Bishops, one for Africa and the other for China, will be created. There is considerable business before the House, and the session will probably extend over two days.

A secret thief named Jos. Real, aged eighteen, attempted to rob the money-drawer of a grocery store on First avenue, and being detected, stabbed the proprietor, his son John and the clerk.
He was arrested by a policeman while attempting to escape.

The trial of Wm. Thompson and Wm.
Ellis, charged with the murder of A.
Wesling, the peddler, in Lydy's woods, Westchester county, a few weeks ago, was concluded to-day in the Court of Oyer and Terminer. Charles Weston, who was also indicted for complicity in the murder, has been granted a separate trial. The jury in the cases of Ellis and Thompson, without leaving their seats and without a moment's deliberation, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree. The prisoners heard the verdict without showing the least concern, having evidently expected it. Judge Barratt sentenced them both to be hung in the Tombs, Friday, Dec. 17.

Burglars last night entered the establishment of L. B. Binns & Co., importers of pearl and other buttons, and made good their escape with about five thousand worth of pearl buttons.

The concert in honor of P. Gilmore, at Concert Garden last night, was a great success. Thirteen thousand people were present and the receipts aggregated $8,000. The band was supplemented by a full chorus. Levy, Arbuckle, Madame Solval, Miss Emma Thursty and others were among the soloists.

The disaster in Virginia City and its serious check upon the gold and silver productions are much discussed among bankers and brokers here. The effect of the news continues to be felt in the Gold Room. The Bank of Nevada will probably make Eugene Kelly & Co. their New York agents. The arrangements contemplated with Brown Brothers have been given up.

The time made yesterday by the yacht Dauntless, in her victorious race with the Resolute, was the fastest on record.
She accomplished 224 miles in 18 hours 28 minutes and 3 seconds.

There are four corners in operation in the produce market at the present time, viz.: A corner in cotton for October delivery, a corner in land, also for October, and a corner in pork and oats for October. The most important is that in cotton, and many of those caught will be unable to bear their losses. The land corner is manipulated by a single broker. The parties forcing pork are what are known as scalpers, and a heavy rise in the market has already taken place.
The oats corner is comparatively small as yet.

Appointments--Report of Secretary Bristow--Cuban Affairs--Indian Matters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 29.--Secretary Bristow yesterday commenced the preparation of his annual report, which promises to be of unusual interest. A prominent feature of his report will be the report of Dr. Lindermann, Director of the Mint, embracing the result of his recent examination of the gold and silver mines of the Pacific Coast and estimates of their productions, and bearing upon the resumption of specie payments. The views of the Secretary upon the last subject are looked for with great interest.

Thomas W. Bailey has been appointed Internal Revenue Gauger for the First California District. Isaac Eddy is appointed Internal Revenue Storekeeper for the same District, and John Langley, Storekeeper for the Second District of Missouri.

There is the best authority for the statement that the report in relation to a change of policy on the part of the Government towards the Cuban question are in the main correct, and that the subject is now engaging the earnest attention of both the Government of the United States and that of Spain, and it is believed that in his forthcoming annual message to Congress, the President will recommend that the independence of the Cubans be recognized.

Agent Howard, of the Spotted Tail agency, has written a letter to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs complaining of the squaw men of his agency. He says these squaw men are leaders among the Indians and are the cause of nearly all the trouble that the agents have in their management of the Indians.

He asked the Commissioner to aid him in driving out the squaw men in his agency, and to successfully accomplish this he desires that he be authorized to cut off the rations hitherto issued to the squaw men and their families. To this the Commissioner has replied, giving to the agent the permission he has desired. The next question will be whether the agent can carry out his plan.

These squaw men have great influence with the Indians, and have always been very prominent in all the treaties and councils. The Indians have always resented any bad treatment of the squaw men as much as they would toward themselves.

A Terrible Feast.
THE ENTIRE CREWS OF TWO AMERICAN AND ONE ENGLISH SHIP EATEN AT A SINGLE REFEAST.

New York, Oct. 29.--A Boston special says information has just been received in that city to the effect that the barks Delta M. Long and Jewess, both of Boston, and a British bark which sailed some time from New South Wales to the Auckland Islands, were becalmed in the vicinity of these islands and boarded by cannibals in large numbers, who overpowered the crews, plundered the ships and scattered them. The entire three crews except one man were killed and eaten at a cannibal feast.

To be Hanged.
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.--Gov. Kellogg has signed the death warrant of the Nicholson brothers, who were convicted of the murder of Marcus Young, in Red River Parish, and of Alley Harris and Tony McBourne, the murderers of Henry Harris. They will be hung December 25.

Snow Storm.
OMAHA, NEB., Oct. 29.--Reports received here from Cheyenne and points west of there, state that a severe snow storm is prevailing in that section. At Evanston and Green River the storm has been raging violently since last night. Communication by telegraph with those points has been partially suspended. A strong wind is blowing.

Lening, of this city, has declined the call of the church in Brooklyn that invited him to its pastorate.

ters at Point au Pellice, the schooners

Terrible Accident at Unadilla, New York.
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Oct. 29.--While a party of six persons were boating on the Susquehanna river at Unadilla yesterday the boat was upset and all were thrown in the water. Maurice Goodrich and wife, of Worcester, New York, and Mr. Moorehouse and wife, of Unadilla, were drowned. Maurice Good-rich's brother escaped, and succeeded in saving his wife. He returned to rescue his companions, but was too late. The two Goodrichs had lately married and were on their wedding trip. The three ladies were sisters. At last accounts the bodies of Moorehouse and his wife and Maurice Goodrich had been recovered, but that of Mrs. Goodrich had not been found.

Railroad Accident.
BALTIMORE, MD., Oct. 29.--Yesterday morning a freight train going south on the Baltimore & Potomac railroad came into collision with passenger train No.
16 at the Lanvale-street crossing. The pilot of the engine to the freight train ran into the passenger train, tearing the sides of the cars and demolishing the pilot and trucks, the bodies of the cars being lifted from the trucks, and the wheels of the trucks were forced up through the floorings. The engine of the freight train was considerably damaged.
A number of lady passengers were severely but not dangerously wounded.
One man, a passenger, name not ascertained, had his head and face badly scalded by steam escaping from the pipes of the engine. The wounded were cared for by the officers of the road and sent to their homes.

LENA HEIL, a pretty-faced German girl of 19, who now lives with Charles Rock and family at No. 565 Eastern avenue, Fulton, and who has been in this country but a few weeks, and who is wealthy still remaining in Katherland, was before His Honor in the Police Court this morning on the charge of grand larceny. The man who charges the fair Lena with this offense is a German butcher named Louis Burrus, doing business at 517 Eastern avenue, and his loss is about $500, in $50 and $100 notes. This Burrus has a son, Louis Jr.

This son--who, by the way, has been considered a lover of Lena's--left his home on the 15th day of the month. Previous to his departure he wrote Lena a note, saying:

"Good-by, Lena, I am going away, and I will not see you ever again."

Burrus, the father, thinking that Lena either knows where her lover is and perhaps shared the spoils, as she had been heard to say she had some money, brings her up on the serious charge of grand larceny. At a hearing of the case this morning, in which Hon. James Fitzgerald appeared as counsel for the defendant, no evidence being furnished implicating Lena, her case was dismissed. The girl bears an excellent reputation, and she is to be congratulated on this happy termination of her trouble.

Fatal Fall.
A young man by the name of John Quinn, living at No. 55 East Third street, was found lying at the foot of the stairway leading to his room dead, and it is supposed that he must have been killed by falling down the steps in the dark.
Young Quinn was a tinner by trade, and known as a quiet, sober man. The Coroner was notified, and will hold an inquest to-day.

Ferdict in the Quinn Case.
The verdict in the case of the man John Quinn, who was found dead at the foot of the stairway in his own house, was that he came to his death from a shock occasioned by falling down stairs.

Alleged Malpractice of Dr. Muscroft-- Some of the Testimony Before the Coroner.

Dr. P. S. Conner sworn--Surgeon at the Cincinnati Hospital; was present at the operation; made no examination excepting a few moments previous to the operation to see if there was a stone present in the bladder. Did not assist in the operation; I advised that it be made; performed in the usual way. I lost one case after a similar operation; it is considered very dangerous; children are the most favorable subjects.
The per cent of deaths is about 1 in 6 or 7.

The child screamed when placed on the table under influence of chloroform about three-quarters of an hour; was present at the post mortem; the conclusion at that time was that the child had died at prinitosis; did not see anything taken away; the child might have lived two, or it might have lived fifty-two years.

Mr. Dunn, mother of the child, was next sworn, and testified as follows: The Sister at the hospital advised me to bring the child to have him treated for gravel; this was about three weeks ago; did not know anything about the operation until it was over; never gave my consent to have it performed.

Dr. Muscroft then asked the witness several questions, but failed to elicit any information of importance. One of the Sisters in the hospital told me that they would have my husband put in the Penitentiary if we made any complaint. The Sister refused to let me see the body after the child's death.

Sister Philpotts of the Belts-street Hospital, sworn; I knew the child; was not present at the time of any conversation between Mrs. Dunn and Dr. Mus-croft. Mr. Dunn told me at one time that an operation would have to be performed; did not see the child after death.

Sister Edmonds, of the Belts-street Hospital, sworn; stated that she knew Mrs. Dunn. That Mrs. Dunn told her that Dr. Muscroft was going to perform an operation on the child and that both she and her husband had given their consent to the operation.

After hearing the above testimony the case was postponed until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The Sycamore Street Murder.
THE VERDICT THIS MORNING.

The constable stated to the Coroner that he was unable to procure any other witnesses in the case, and the jury were then sent out to consult and return a verdict. In a few moments they returned with the following:

"We, the jury, do find that the deceased came to his death from a pistol ball fired from a pistol, and from a conscious state, by James Douglas while being conveyed to the station-house under arrest, we are under the belief the pistol was in his hand and the shot fired by him, and we further find James C.
Robinson and Michael Mullen are accessories to the crime.

B. F. Short, Sam. Bloom, M. B. Robert-sen, T. J. Carey, Hambrook, Michael Egner."

In the Police Court.
In the Police Court this morning E.
M. Wier, Edgar Robinson and Richard Wier were sworn, but testifying about substantially the same as when before the Coroner.

Dr. A. L. Carrick testifies as follows:
"From the direction of the ball, the pistol was held slightly upwards, and close to the head, and from 12 to 20 inches from it. The party firing it must have stood directly behind the deceased."

After hearing the above testimony Judge Lindeman dismissed Douglas and bound over Robinson, Mullen and Dowling to the Criminal Court under bonds of $5,000.

Poetry vs. Reality.
Talking of the ocean with him ("Barry Cornwall") one day, he revealed this curious fact; although he is the author of one of the most stirring and popular sea-songs in the language--

"The sea, the sea, the open sea!"-- he said he had rarely been upon the tossing element, having a great fear of being made ill by it. I think he told me he had never dared to cross the Channel even, and so had never seen Paris.
He said, like many others, he delighted to gaze upon the waters from a safe place on land, but had a horror of being on it even for a few hours. He recalled to his recollection his own lines--

"I'm on the sea! I'm on the sea!
I'm where I would never be!"
and he shook his head, and laughingly declared I must have misquoted his words, or that Didd had had written the piece and put "Barry Cornwall's" signature to it. We had, I remember, a great deal of fun over the poetical lies, as he called them, which bards in all ages have perpetrated in their verse, and told me some stories of English poets,
